Ontario adds to provincial debt load and remains locked into costly and inflexible nuclear power for the next 40 years.

Quebec locked into existing US Northeast market where prices are falling and transmission capacity is at capacity.

Ontario saves $600 million per year – $12 billion over a 20 year contract.

Quebec earns $600 million more per year than it would from exports to the US with no need for new transmission lines to increase capacity.

New funding for schools, hospitals and transit.

Provincial debts and deficits rise.

ELECTRICITY BILL 8.3–37 cents per kWh

ELECTRICITY BILL 5.7 cents per kWh